alleluia!
Christ has Risen!

Letter from the Editor

Hey All,

Yea! Spring is in the air! I am sooooo happy to be back on the bike! After this brutal winter I know my neighborhood is full of pot hole and dangerous riding conditions. Its like dodging land minds. So please as you all get on your bikes watch out for the road conditions!

Remember as riding season starts in full swing soon to look for your local bike club events, see if there is anyway you can help them out or just attend. Building relationships with them is the best way to be a light in the biker community! It is fun to join in, Curt and I love to serve in that way, we have built so many great friendships! We pray that God will use that in a big way! Don't forget to look for bike nights and car and bike shows. It is fun to set up a booth or table and hand out tracts and bibles! Take the time to pray with people and also grow your team! Riders for the Son welcomed 4 new members this year from Lansdale bike night! You never know who you could meet!!! God is Awesome!

Because of Jesus We Have Hope,

Ralph A. Bainbridge
Chaplain Gospel Riders

To Our Brothers and Sister in Christ,

Since the founding of Motorcyclist for Jesus Ministry, we have enjoyed a reasonable cost of our yearly dues. This young ministry received large sums of financial support from its membership to supply their needs. Now, in the past several years these donations have dwindled due to members retiring and now living on fixed incomes. Yes, there are a few of our members that continue to contribute, but not at the pace they once did. Also, TEAMS have slowed tithing to the Ministry due to financial and economic issues and funding many outreaches of their own TEAMS.

We find ourselves struggling to come up with funds to support National outreaches which the BoD feels the call to fund. (ie, Providing Bibles and tracts for Lansdale Bike night, Bike Week, Easy Rider shows, Sturgis, etc.) We are missing out on great opportunities to reach out to those who do not know Christ.

Today our ministry is now trying to fill in the financial voids. Yearly dues cover new membership materials, administrative costs, and the monthly news letter.

With this being said, regretfully the BoD has decided to raise our Yearly and Life Time dues. It's been a long time coming and we feel for our Ministry to continue to survive, this change had to be made. This change will take place as of June 1st. 2015.

Yearly Dues- Single- $25.00, Married Couples- $45.00
International Dues- Single- $45.00 Married Couples- $60.00
Life Time Membership- Singles- $300.00, Married Couples-$450.00

God Bless!

BIKE SAFETY

Now that we are back on the road again bike safety is very important. Here is a picture that show you every spot that you are invisible to the truck driver. Keep this in mind when you are out there on the highway! Keep Safe!
