Song of Solomon 8:6

Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, its jealousy unyielding as the grave. It burns like blazing fire, like a mighty flame. (NIV)

A NOTE FROM THE BOARD

The Holiday season is over and it's time to get back to Ministry business. There's a lot going on in 2014. The first part of the year will be very busy with elections for vacating BoD members, Bike Week in Florida, and the Spring Kickoff in Oklahoma. I'm hopeful that all the TEAMS will take this time to update their yearly activities and get the information to Steve Modricker to be posted on our Ministry's web-site. It's important to get this done so we can share with all who visit the site what's going on.

I'm sad to inform you all that Jack Senior has resigned from the MJM. The Lord is calling him to another direction and he feel compelled to follow his heart. Jack has played an important roll in this Ministry for many years and he will be missed.

For those who are ministers and feel a calling to become a member of the BoD as Chaplain, I'm asking you to read our handbook for qualifications and then if you feel compelled to be Chaplain, please send me an e-mail letter with your interest and qualifications. I would like to fill the Chaplain's position by the end of March.

As a side note. 2013 seen several changes in our Ministry. Not all has been good and or bad. I will say our Ministry is showing signs of positive growth. I'm hopeful 2014 continues the same path of good positive growth spiritually and TEAM membership.

Remember, the BoD is here to server you!

God Bless All!

Letter from the Editor

Well Its February and like most bikers I am counting the days till spring and the warm weather! That would be 49 days! That does not sound that far away right???

I am sad to say that we are loosing a T.E.A.M. here in MJM. Team Iron Angles have decided to leave MJM and move to another motorcycle ministry. I am very excited for Morris and his team. I am sad to see a friend leave MJM. I will ask that you all keep Morris and his team in your prayers as he starts this new direction.

I will just keep it short and sweet this month! God Bless to everyone!

Jesus said to him, 'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' (NKJV)

Riders for the Son had the opportunity to join in a ministry fair at New Life Presbyterian Church in Glenside PA. It's amazing how God's timing works. I was asked to present the lesson at my men's fellowship group. They said why don't you take a few minutes to tell us what you do with that motorcycle thing you do. I showed them the slides on our website. The devotional had to wait for the following week because they had so many questions about MJM. They couldn't believe that motorcyclists could be involved in so much Godly ministry. One of the guys was really impressed that amongst all the gnarly tattoos was someone with I Samuel 16:7 tattooed on his arm. He said that's not just your average tattoo, that's a serious statement. Their reaction surprised me a little as it's become so commonplace for me to see this ministry going on almost every weekend.

Anyway, some leaders of the church were in that group and asked if we could present the ministry at their ministry fair which was happening the very next day, Sunday 9:00-1:00am. They hadn't had one of these ministry fairs for about 7 years. So that's why I say God's timing is amazing.

Since we already had the slideshow done and we are always ready to setup a booth, it was no problem to come up with a great looking table. The laptop with a slideshow struck up lots of conversations. We made lots of new friends and shared lots of great stories. The fair was a great idea to show people how they can get involved in ministry. There were overseas missionaries and local addictions ministries and many other helping hands ministries from our area. I don't know how much fruit will come from that day, but many connections were made.

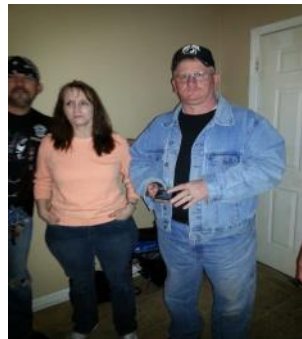

We were excited for this opportunity and are looking to be involved in more of these types of events in the future. We want to continue to partner with our local churches and share resources for furthering the Gospel of Christ to the motorcycle community.

God Bless,
Steven Modricker

Friendship

by Kristen Parrish from No Cape Required

Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. — John 15:13

What's the most famous friendship in the history of pop culture? My money is on Captain James T. Kirk and his Vulcan first officer, Mr. Spock, from Gene Roddenberry's Star Trek. Where the rugged captain played from his gut, often finding unique solutions to dangerous encounters, Spock was his ever-logical and supremely faithful counterpart.

Whether they were facing Romulans or Klingons or nemeses like Khan Noonien Singh, together they made a whole. And their relationship has endured since the original television show premiered in 1966.

It is no small thing when in 1982's movie, Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan, Mr. Spock faces his final moments separated from his friend by a clear wall. How does he end up stranded and alone? The wounded Enterprise is desperately trying to escape an exploding nebula, but without warp speed, they'll never make it.

Spock quietly disappears from the bridge and descends to the engine room, where he restores the warp drive, knowing the leaking radiation will be fatal to him.

With the ship out of danger, now-Admiral Kirk rushes down to his friend but cannot even hold him as he dies, because of the radiation that has flooded the engine room.

"Spock!" Kirk cries.

"The ship... out of danger?" asks his friend.

"Yes."

"Don't grieve, Admiral," Spock says weakly. "It is logical.

The needs of the many outweigh —"

"— the needs of the few," supplies Kirk.

"Or the one..."

"I have been, and always shall be, your friend." Spock holds up his hand in the iconic Vulcan salute. "Live long and prosper."

Spock's dying statements to his friend mirror those found in Scripture. It is essentially the same message Jesus gave us in John 15:12–13, where He commanded us to love one another "as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends."

Friendship is a gift that God gives to us, just as He gave it to David and Jonathan in 1 Samuel 18:1: "And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul".

These men were friends to the end, and after Jonathan was killed in battle, David took his friend's son into his household to raise as his own child.

Is your life rich with friendships? If you are one of the luckiest of us, you may have a friend whom you love as your own soul. Be sure to nurture that relationship and consider yourself a blessed person.

A PRAYER Dear Lord, thank You for friends. Help me appreciate them and not take them for granted. Show me who to offer my friendship. Amen.

TAKE ACTION

- Is there someone new in your community? Reach out the hand of friendship and welcome her or him.
- Do you have old friendships you've allowed to wither away for lack of time? Reenergize them with a quick phone call, a Facebook message, or an e-mail, letting them know you're thinking about them.
- Is there someone in your church or elsewhere in your daily life who doesn't have many friends because he or she is socially awkward or shy? Offer your friendship, and you may be surprised what a delight you are to that person.

Your Turn

What about you? How do you plan to take action? Who can you offer your friendship to today? Who can you reach out to with appreciation?

GOT TO WANT HIM

Jeremiah 29:11-14 (KJV)

¹¹ For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

¹² Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

¹³ And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

¹⁴ And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

God is given us a choice as to what to do if we want his intervention in our lives'. It's just not enough to like God and then expect a healthy relationship with the Father God or people. Many like God, but do not know him. To know him is the beginning of building a foundation. The foundation is what we build upon and the stronger the foundation the bigger the building. What you focus on eventually will consume you. Many focus on the things around them and of this world rather than the one that supplied it all in the first place. What are we focusing on, what things seem to have consumed you rather than God. It can be ministry, sports, motorcycles, bike night's, bike rallies, cars and the list goes on. I mentioned ministry because it can be a big detour- ant to keep us from fellowship with our God. I know because I pastured a church for many years and easily would substitute it in exchange for intimate time with God. We begin to think that what we are doing is so important and we leave the main architect out of the blueprint. Without intimacy with God there can be no revelation of the Word of God.

In The Message Bible Jer. 29:11-14 It say's, "I know what I'm doing. I have it all planned out – plans to take care of you, not abandon you, plans to give you the future you hope for: When you call on me, when you come and pray to me, I'll listen. When you come looking for me, you'll find me." Yes, when you get serious about finding me and want it more than anything else, I'll make sure you won't be disappointed."

Words like when you call, come and pray, looking, serious about finding, more than anything. God's promise to the one that does these things, he'll show up big time, he or she will not be disappointed. We must be hungry for him. He wants us to desire him more than anything. Did you notice the words when you? When we get down to really being serious with God we can expect his provisions to abound in our lives and ministry but not until he is all we want. We must be hungry and thirsty for him and God is serious about that. It will not happen any other way.

The Spirit makes us hungry

1 Peter 2:2 (KJV)

² As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

Acts 2:42 (KJV)

⁴² And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. If you're not hungry for God, then cry out with all you have and ask him to make you hungry!

Psalm 119:18 (KJV)

¹⁸ Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

Many Blessings To You Always !!

A Blurb from the National Road Rep Administrators

Well, one month of the New Year has already passed by. As Northeastern residents this does not break our hearts as it brings us that much closer to the short riding season we have. We have had weeks worth of single and double digit below zero weather which we sure hope is over. We hope everyone has had a blessed start of the New Year and find 2014 a wonderful year filled with Blessings from our Father. We know as the days, weeks, months and years pass by we come closer to going home. Many folks look at each passing day as a day closer to death. As Christians we have the blessing of knowing that each passing day is closer to LIFE. Praise The Lord!

I would like to remind the TEAM Presidents that it is time to send us your TEAM officer information. If you need a new form or what information is needed please contact us via email or phone and we will give you the needed info or send a form out to you. Thank You.

God Bless,
