Prophecies on the Birth of The Messiah

After Christ's birth the magi arrived in Jerusalem. Herod gathered the chief priests and scribes and asked them where the Messiah was going to be born.

Matthew 2:3-6 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for this is what has been written by the prophet:

'And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the leaders of Judah; For out of you shall come forth a Ruler who will shepherd My people Israel.'"

(Micah 5:2)

The second fulfilled prophecy resulting from Herod's paranoiac rage took place and Joseph took Mary and Jesus to Egypt. Upon their return, God's words to Hosea were fulfilled.

Matthew 2:14-15 (NASB)

So Joseph got up and took the Child and His mother while it was still night, and left for Egypt. He remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I called My Son."

(Hosea 11:1)

The final prophecy discussed by Matthew pertaining to events in the early years of Jesus has to do with his boyhood home. God warned Joseph in a dream not to go back to Judea, so instead he took Mary and Jesus to Nazareth in Galilee, "that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, 'He shall be called a Nazarene'".
