March

2 Corinthians 5:17

New King James Version (NKJV)

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.

A NOTE FROM THE BOARD

Congratulations to Fred McClincy and Phil Guica for winning a spot as Directors on the BoD. Fred and Phil have past experience as board members and will be a great asset. As we rebuild our Ministry, Fred and Phil will bring their experiences from past BoD meeting to be able to apply new and better ideas. I'm looking forward to working with both of these Godly men. The future of our Ministry can only get better.

I continue to receive phone calls and e-mails surrounding our newsletter. I want to make it very clear that we are no longer mailing the newsletter out. If you own and operate a home computer, you will receive the newsletter via your computer. If you do not have a computer, we will be glad to mail you a copy. It's time for our Ministry to move forward with the technology we have to work with. E-mailing our newsletters to members is a great cost savings.

In a few months our Goodies department will have bibles available to be able to assist those TEAMS for their outside ministries. I'm asking Terri to work with all of you who are interested in purchasing these bibles. We have come upon a publishing company to supply our Goodies department bibles by the case. I'm asking TEAMS to donate the cost back to the Goodies department plus her shipping charges before she sends them to you. They will only be sold by the case.

I'm looking forward to going to Bike Week in Florida. I feel we are doing a great outreach to those who need to know what good things God can do in their lives. I'm asking all of you for prayers for those going. We are looking for a great week of ministering God's word.

Paul Brennen
Chairman of MJM BoD.

Letter from the Editor

Wow! I can't believe that we are into March already!!! I have high hopes for nicer weather. I think this winter I have seen enough snow to last me a few years. It soon will be time to bring out our bikes and ready them for the riding season. I am very excited. Although some of us in the ministry get to ride all year round. I was talking with Sonny Ticer this week and he is very excited about riding his brand new 2014 Yamaha!!!

It will be a busy year again for my Team, Riders for the Son. I hope also for all of our other Team's in the ministry. We are working together with some of the other Team's in Pa, we have a lot of events this year when we will have our booth set up! We are very excited to be selling the Supporter shirts! We look forward to seeing a lot of you all at the Fall Gathering, and having you join in with us at our booth. Please look for more information about that as the time gets closer! How fun to participate in an event that will have about 80,000 bikers. Talk about a chance for witnessing!!! AMEN!

Serenity isn't freedom from the storm, it is peace within the storm. When we release the bitterness, judgment and blame of the past, whether of ourselves or others, the past becomes a stepping stone to spiritual growth, to increased compassion, understanding and love. Today, repeat several times, "I bless my past and see it as a stepping stone for greater good"

Mary Manin Morrissey

MARK YOUR CALENDARS for the Fall Gathering 2014! It will be held September 5-7, 2014 in PA., in conjunction with Lansdale Bike Night. It draws over 80,000 people to the event. There will be opportunities to help and serve at the show on Saturday 9/6/2014. More details to follow!!!!!!

MJM Now has Supporter Shirts! You can sell them to your friends and family, and they can proudly show support for our Ministry. You can contact Curtis or Terri Jones @ 215-885-4474 or fuzzydoodle@verizon.net to get your order.

MJM is looking for Team's to host The Spring Kick Off for 2015, 2016 and 2017. If your Team is interested in hosting a SKO for any of these years, please send an email to Paul Brennen at pbrennen2@gmail.com. Let him know what year your team would like to host. We hope that you all will step up and have a great time doing it!

MJM International Evangelist

MJM would like to thank Pastor Santo Landerer for accepting the position of International Evangelist. Santo has worked all around the world in ministry, he will be a wonderful representative of MJM. We look forward to who he can reach and bring into our Ministry from around the world. It is exciting to think of MJM reaching outside of the US and spreading the word to motorcyclist everywhere. Please keep Santo in your prayers as he jumps into this with all his heart.

MJM would like to welcome Fred McClincy and Phil Guica to the National Board of Directors. Fred and Phil have served in MJM for many years. Their wisdom will be a great asset to the Board. We all look forward to the new direction that MJM is going. Let's remember to pray for all of our Board, as they will be starting their new year in April.

You Were Meant to Thrive

by Mark Hall from Thrive

You were meant to do more than just survive. You were meant to thrive.

You were not meant to struggle to make it through the week, the day, the next hour.

You were not meant for your world to feel like a weight, for the break of dawn to be the starter pistol for another meaningless rat race. You were not meant to be shackled by anxiety, worry, and fear. No, you were meant for so much more.

You were meant to have life and to have it more abundantly. That is the promise of the eternal God.

You were meant to dig deep and to reach out.

You were meant to know God and to make him known.

You were meant to point to the one hope, the one anchor, the one true source of joy, peace, and contentment for the entire human race. His name is Jesus.

Surviving is for those who have no hope. That's not you – not if you're God's child. You were meant to thrive.

I'm not saying you won't have trouble in this life. Only the false teachers of the prosperity gospel claim otherwise. They promise prosperity while using Scriptures written from prison or during some of the lowest moments in the lives of godly men. Out of Jesus' twelve disciples, only one escaped martyrdom, and he was exiled to a desolate island. I still can't figure how that entitles us to buy a Benz. Without exception, all of us will have some bad days. But Jesus tells us to take heart. He has overcome the world, which means we can thrive amid it all (John 16:33).

When I was in high school, the word thrive was not in my vocabulary. It felt like the best I could do was to survive. As I struggled with attention deficit disorder and dyslexia long before most folks knew of their existence, school days felt like a mix of labor camp, summer camp (recess and lunch), and the next embarrassment that lurked right around the corner. At times, my life still feels that way. At times, I feel like I'm still trying to survive.

If we are honest, we can look back on the last year and say we only survived it. We survived work. We survived school. We survived with most of our relationships intact.

Some of us have not survived very well. Maybe our circle of friends has changed. Maybe our families are different than they were this time last year, and we have survived some major storms.

In fact, a lot of us are in survival mode right now:

If I can just get to this weekend...

If I can just make it to the first of the month...

If I can just get to summer vacation...

If I can just finish this project...

If I can just beat this sickness...

If I can just make this payment...

If I can just get the kids through college...

I remember looking at the clock in high school and thinking, Only eleven more minutes. I don't think they're ever going to pass. I'm never going to get out of this place. I'm going to grow old and die in this room. If I can survive just eleven more minutes, I'm done with this.

If you're not careful, you will live your life with that same survival attitude.

I went to my class reunion a few years ago. As I talked with a group of friends, we looked over to the bar. Around it stood ten guys who are the exact same people they were as seniors in high school. They never grew up. My wife, Melanie, and I sat with a friend named Karen. Back when we were in school, Karen was quiet – nice, but reserved. Believe it or not, I was too. Neither of us really did much in high school, which is sad when I think about it. It wasn't until later in life that we emerged from our shells. At the reunion, Karen looked at the guys at the bar and shook her head. "You know," she said, "it seems like some people never left the beach."

We listened to the guys at the bar say things like "Man, I was glad to just punch that clock Friday" and "Dude, I can't wait till summer. We're heading down to Panama City Beach."

Surviving.

Every day, they're just surviving.

You were not made to survive life. Or to survive work. Or school. Or your family. You were not made to exist until you can get over the next hump or get to the next break.

You were created for one purpose: to know God and to make Him known.

You are not living the life you were created to live if survive is your word. You were made to thrive.

Point to Remember: We were meant to thrive and not just survive.

Your Turn

Are you just barely surviving? Just trying to get through the day? I think all of us have had seasons like that. Are you living purpose of knowing God and making known? for that Him

From the Face Book Page of

2nd Annual PA Pot Luck

We were so happy to have our 2nd annual pot luck here in PA. This year we were bless to have Missionary's from South Africa, members of CMA, Glenn his wife Karina and their children. Also the Motorcycle Club Disciples of Christ joined us with their families! It was so fun to have some of our Pa teams make it out despite all the snow everywhere!!!! Phil and Belva came all the way down from VT! We are all gearing up for the riding season, we all held hands and took a time of prayer. What a blessing it was to be such a diversified group, and the love we felt for the brothers and sisters in that room was beyond race and boarders! Looking forward to next year already!
