The Power of the Blood David Silver

For the Life of the flesh is in the blood... – Leviticus 17:11 I

I was inspired to write this after an accident. My 93 year-old uncle had a fall at his apartment and as a result he seriously cut his head open. He called me for help and when I arrived it looked like a murder scene. There was blood everywhere. My uncle was covered in blood. The floor was covered in blood. The chair he was sitting in was soaked in blood. My son and I drove him to the emergency room at Carmel Hospital, where they stitched up the wound, cleaned him up, and checked him for any internal injuries. A few hours later we took him back home and I set to cleaning up the pools of my uncles bright red blood. After a few hours sleep my uncles was as good as new – well, as good as a 93 year-old could be.

Now back to the blood. I don't know how much blood my uncle lost, but it was significant. Actually, I have never see so much blood in real life. A few hours later, as I was thinking about all that blood, I sensed the Holy Spirit speaking to me about the holiness of blood to the LORD. If the life of the flesh is in the blood and YHVH is the giver of life, then there must be a spiritual connection between God and blood. In Genesis when Cain murders his brother Abel, the Father in Heaven declares to Cain, the blood of your brother cries out to Me from the ground. I thought again about my uncles blood that had been spilled all around, that it was very holy to God. When someone dies in Israel from a car accident or terror attack, there is a special Orthodox Jewish organization that quickly arrives on the scene to painstakingly collect all of the blood and human remains, after which they respectfully bury it.

Now to the point I want to make. If the blood of human beings is that holy to the Father, how much more is holy to Him is the blood of His only begotten Son, Yeshua? (I was not sure whether to put a question mark or an exclamation point after that last statement). Most pictures of Yeshua on the cross are clinically clean – no blood visible. However, the movie Passion of the Christ is a far more realistic representation of the whipping, beating and crucifixion of the Lord; His body and face are torn apart and extremely bloodied. Not a pretty sight to be sure, but without those pools of Yeshua's shed blood there would be no New Covenant and we would all be still unsaved sinners with no hope of salvation and eternal life in the Kingdom of God. God forgive us if we have not taken the sacrifice of Your Son seriously enough. And forgive us Father if we still give our own lives and reputation priority over sharing the Gospel with the people we come into contact with.

Father I pray that you will give a fresh revelation to everyone reading this message, of the enormous price that You paid for each one of us, and the absolute holiness of Yeshua's blood, and the holiness of every drop of human blood that You have ever created. And help us to remember that the blood of Yeshua is more than powerful enough to overcome and defeat the kingdom of darkness.

Father, fill us afresh with your Holy Spirit and empower us to be your servants and your witnesses to a lost and dying world.

YES JOHNNY, THERE ARE BLUE SKIES!!

Part of my shower/worship/prayer song I do in the morning states:"

*"Blue is the color of my Makers sky,
In the morning when I rise, and in the morning when I rise, though the sky be blue or gray, I give Him praise."*

We can all have mornings and a section of our living that are stormy and gray, clouds dark and unsettled but that are only what our human senses grasp at the moment. Above and past those gray skies it is really perfectly clear, beautiful blue air.

The same thing with all believers going through the storms and turbulent times of life. We could be going through the ugliest, darkest moments of our existence but beyond this? Past what we now see, feel and touch we know it will be glorious, marvelous, beautiful beyond our ability to describe or compare to. In fact: "Heavenly".

Just as our main battle is not in this physical so is our ultimate home. When you are facing the storms and disasters of this life put your focus on the "hereafter", because ultimately, that is what we are here after.

And thank You, Lord Jesus, for making a way.

*Always looking up,
Gt*

SENIORS

George Phillips, an elderly man from Walled Lake, Michigan, was going up to bed, when his wife told him that he'd left the light on in the garden shed, which she could see from the bedroom window. George opened the back door to go turn off the light, but saw that there were people in the shed stealing things. He phoned the police, who asked,

"Is someone in your house?"

He said "No," but some people are breaking into my garden shed and stealing from me. Then the police dispatcher said "All patrols are busy, you should lock your doors and an officer will be along when one is available"

George said, "Okay." He hung up the phone and counted to 30. Then he phoned the police again. "Hello, I just called you a few seconds ago because there were people stealing things from my shed. Well, you don't have to worry about them now because I just shot and killed them both; the dogs are eating them right now," and he hung up.

Within five minutes, six Police Cars, a SWAT Team, a Helicopter, two Fire Trucks, a Paramedic and an Ambulance showed up at the Phillips' residence, and caught the burglars red-handed. One of the Policemen said to George,

"I thought you said that you'd shot them!"

George said, "I thought you said there was nobody available!"
(Supposedly true story.)

A distraught senior citizen phoned her doctor's office.

"Is it true," she wanted to know, "that the medication you prescribed has to be taken for the rest of my life?"

"Yes, I'm afraid so," the doctor told her. There was a moment of silence before the senior lady replied.

"I'm wondering, then, just how serious is my condition, because this prescription is marked 'NO REFILLS'.."

Not a Holiday lets do customs

Hi everyone! I usually talk about holidays but I thought maybe if there is not one right now we should start talking about customs (boy that could go on forever)!

So I decided lets start at the beginning LIFE:

In Jewish law the soul exists prior to birth BUT life begins at birth that is when the baby is more than halfway through the birth canal. In Judaism there is no original sin (sin from Adam and Eve in the garden) so a baby is born pure, completely free of sin. A pray is said daily that says, "Oh G-d, the soul you gave me is pure. You created it, you fashioned, you breathed it into me." Traditionally there are not baby showers or buying of anything for the baby prior to birth the reason is a superstition that drawing attention to the baby also brings bad luck to the baby. This is starting to change and some people are having showers, good for them you gets lots of great stuff at showers just ask any mom!!!

Brit Milah; other wise known as circumcision:

This commandment (Gen 17:10 and Lev 12:3) is the one that is followed by all Jews no matter secular to Hassidic. Most people just call it a BRIS. This covenant was originally made with Abraham and is therefore the first commandment that is specific to the Jews. A bris as stated in the bible is an outward physical sign of the covenant between G-d and the Jewish people. (as an aside circumcised males have a lower risk of certain cancers). A father is obligated to have his sons circumcised or they will have to have themselves circumcised when they become adults. The circumcision is done on the eight day of the baby's life and is done during the day. The day the baby is born counts as day 1. The circumcision is done by a mohel, a pious man educated in Jewish Law and trained in the surgical technique used.

Bet you did not know that sometimes a baby boy is born without a foreskin. In that case then a pinprick of blood is taken from the tip of the penis as a symbolic circumcision.

While the bris is being done the baby is held by person known as a "sandek" (we would call that person a godfather). Also an ornate chair is set-aside for Elijah, who they say presides over all circumcision. Traditional blessings are said and a drop of wine is placed in the baby's mouth. The baby is then given a formal Hebrew name.

And of course like all special events Jewish or not the traditional ritual is followed by a festive meal. (since it is usually in the morning lots of bagels and lox).

So there are more traditions surrounding birth but it goes on and gives me more to write about another time! Look for more info coming soon

Be blessed

From the desk of one Completed Jew
Robin (GT's wife)

Good-Bye-Dear-Friend

Fellow MJM Member Kenneth Lemaster of Ashland Kentucky went to be with our Lord on Monday August 8, 2016. Ken and his lovely wife Shirley joined MJM in 1995. That's when we first became friends. Our friendship continued to grow as we rode and served together throughout the years. His love for ice cream could only be beaten by founder Ralph Philpott. They became Lifetime Members in 2006. They attended many motorcycle rallies, events and prison ministries lifting up Jesus. For those of us that knew and loved Ken remember him as a soft spoken and loving man, always willing to help. I thank God for allowing Ken Lemaster to part of my life. Rest in peace brother. Have the ice cream ready when we meet again. Love Your Bud. Karl
