Rabbi Paul And Your Commentary

The Talmud and the Targums are Judaism’s writings on the Bible and commentary on the commentaries of the Bible. When you read the writings of Paul, it’s clear that he was a rabbi schooled in the Writings of the Rabbis. His writings are every bit as rabbinical in style and approach as that of the Talmud and the Targums of Judaism – except that he has the answer, the truth of Messiah, and the Spirit of God. God prepared him all his years before Messiah – to become an expert in commenting on Scriptures and bringing out their deeper meanings so that you could be blessed with the epistles. So, too, God has given you His Word and salvation and He wants you to comment on it, discuss it, share it, proclaim it, rejoice in it, and contemplate it. He’s given you His Word. Your life is to be the commentary on His Word. Let everything in your life, word, and deed be a commentary on God’s love and salvation. God gave you the Bible. Let your life now become its living, continuous, and never-ending commentary.

How Are You Marking Time???

One of my favorite books and movies of the fantasy type is the Lord of the Rings Trilogy by J.R.R.Tolkien. Truly a tale of good vs. evil. In this story Frodo is entrusted with the only thing that can save their known existence. Given a very heavy seemingly impossible task to accomplish, his "cross to bear if you will allow me the comparison, he turns to his mentor Gandolph and says, I wish this had never come to me. Gandolph says in turn (I'm paraphrasing here.) So do all who find themselves in these times. It is but up to us to decide what to do with the situations and times they find themselves in that is important.

Would anyone argue it seems we are in the last days? It is up to each one of us to decide how to wisely spend the time given us through these days.

God Bless and God Speed all you saints indeed.....

Always looking up,

gt
