HAPPY 250TH BIRTHDAY AMERICA

The Star-Spangled Banner

America's National Anthem

Say, can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched
Were so gallantly, yeah, streaming?
And the rockets' red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave

Songwriters: David Martin Frank / Francis Scott Key / John Stafford Smith

MOVING ON

Have you ever noticed, usually in looking back, how some things have to be dropped, some doors have to close, for you to move on in God's Will? We can easily become complacent in whatever situations we find ourselves in. My wife and I were very happy in a certain church we attended for 12 years. I was on the worship team, and made flags for the ladies flag ministry of which my wife was a member. We handled the doughnut ministry and I was into the Men's Ministry and a motorcycle ministry and she the Ladies with retreats and what not.

Being our first church after being Born Again we learned a lot there and wouldn't change that experience but I guess The Lord had different plans and that season has ended. Who wants to move but the church started changing and we felt we were slowly being squeezed out of the ministries and shuffled off to the side all of a sudden. Just as well, we would have stayed but not have grown anymore.

After some searching, and I believe Spirit leading, we settled on a Calvary Chapel where they teach in depth the Bible, line by line and chapter by chapter. This was what we needed to deepen our knowledge and wisdom. Others I know were also forced on and even though you perhaps can point to an individual as the catalyst I believe it was God's plan. One is now a Pastor of his own church and another the head and evangelist of a Motorcycle Ministry.

Some old things have to be removed before you can move on. For instance, Gideon in the wine press, Moses when he was a shepherd, Matthew when he was a prosperous tax collector, all those disciples who were fishermen by trade, and Moses had to die for Joshua to take over and reach the 'promised land.' There are many examples in the old and new testament and even today that point to; if you don't move, If The Lord wants you to, He will move you. Just check out Jonah's story.

Proverbs 3:5-6 New American Standard Bible

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.

If God is in it, change can be a good thing!

FOCUS ON WHAT MATTERS MOST

It's been said;

Focusing on heaven restores our hope in times of suffering.

(Romans 8:18) CJB

I don't think the sufferings we are going through now are even worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed to us in the future.

Focusing on heaven assures us that God is on the throne.

(Revelation 4:2-3) AMPC

At once I came under the [Holy] Spirit's power, and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with One seated on the throne!

3 And He Who sat there appeared like [the crystalline brightness of] jasper and [the fiery] sardius, and encircling the throne there was a halo that looked like [a rainbow of] emerald.

Focusing on heaven reminds us that this world is not our home.

(Philippians 3:20) CJB

But we are citizens of heaven, and it is from there that we expect a Deliverer, the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Focusing on heaven points to our true treasure.

(Matthew 6:19-21) NASB

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; 21 for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Focusing on heaven reignites our fervor to serve the Lord.

(Isaiah 6:1-8)

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send? And who will go for Us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

‘I once heard someone wisely say, “Aim at heaven and you will get earth thrown in. Aim at earth and you will get neither.’ George Tamburino (NY)

2026 SPRING KICKOFF

This year's spring kickoff was hosted by the Gospel Riders in the Limerick, PA area. Below are some pictures from the event. Tom and I were not able to attend SKO this year so thank you Jeanne McClincy for allowing me to use photos and captions from your Facebook page. Awards not in the pictures: The Founder's Award went to Karl Wardlaw, Missionary Award was given to Eric and Holly Gilbert, and the Pappy's Award was awarded to the Saddlebag Riders.

Group photo at the Pagoda . Some are missing.

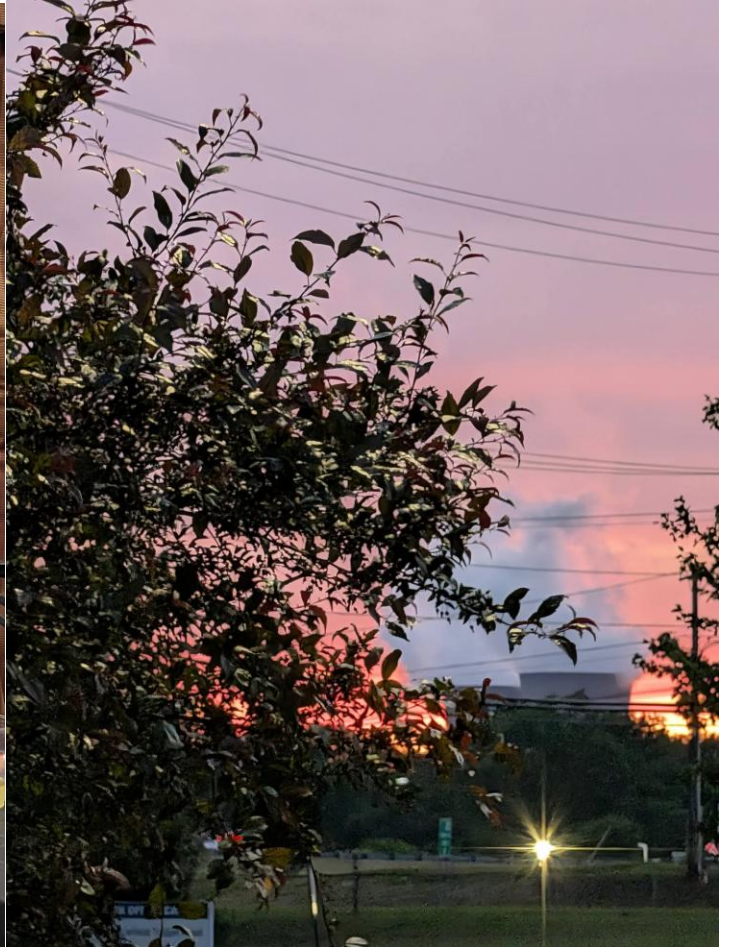

There is not a more beautiful site than a group of motorcycles riding down the road.

Covered bridge

Dinner (Moyer's Catering)

Bobby's artwork won by Cindy, nice addition to her office she said.

Taking a break.

Chuck is on the hill next to the Pagoda giving the message on Saturday morning.

The Appreciation award presented to the Gospel Riders for hosting the spring kickoff this year. George Partridge received the Servant Award for this past year.

HAPPY 37TH BIRTHDAY MJM! YOU ROCK!!!!

EDITOR'S CORNER

Tom and I recently went on a beautiful cruise to Ireland, Iceland, and Norway and then stayed in London, England for 4 days. We went with 2 other family members. It was very beautiful and we were blessed to be able to go on the trip. Ireland was very green and the people were very friendly. We did see the blarney stone. Iceland had the most beautiful hot spring and we could have stayed in it forever. Norway had an amazing peace to it and the land was so beautiful. London was full of history. I felt like a princess back in the medieval times with knights and kings and queens. Iceland and Norway were in their summer solstice midnight sun times. The sun dips below the horizon for only a few hours of twilight. It is very hard to sleep. London had record high temperatures and as everyone has heard they do not have air conditioning. The food does not have a lot of sugar and salt in it. I am used to my American high sugar diet. I say all this to say whenever I travel to other places I always miss home. There is nothing like your own bed. I could not wait to buy a Hershey chocolate bar and Reese Cups. We have our own problems and nothing is perfect but I would rather be here than anywhere. So many people want to complain and a lot of celebrities said they were leaving the USA because of politics. I say this is still the best country around. God Bless the USA. I am proud to be an American.

Psalm 33:12 “Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people he chose for his inheritance.”

Acts 17:26 “From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands.”

We were meant to be here and have a place in the world. So let us do what we were created to do.
